QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MEETING AND VOTING

What am I voting on?

- To elect five directors to our Board of Directors (Menderes Akdag, Frank J. Formica, Gian M. Fulgoni, Ronald J. Korn, Robert C. Schweitzer).
- To ratify the appointment of Goldstein Golub Kessler LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm.
- To approve the adoption of the PetMed Express, Inc. 2006 Employee Equity Compensation Restricted Stock Plan.
- To approve the adoption of the PetMed Express, Inc. 2006 Outside Director Equity Compensation Restricted Stock Plan.

What is a proxy?

It is your legal designation of another person to vote the stock you own. That other person is called a proxy. If you designate someone as your proxy in a written document, that document also is called a proxy or a proxy card. We have designated Bruce S. Rosenbloom, our Chief Financial Officer and Alison Berges, our Corporate Secretary and General Counsel, as proxies for the 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

How will my proxy vote my shares?

Your proxy will vote according to your instructions. If you complete your proxy instructions but do not indicate your vote on one or all of the business matters, your proxy will vote “FOR” these items. Also, your proxy is authorized to vote on any other business that properly comes before the annual meeting in accordance with the recommendation of our Board of Directors.

Why did I receive this proxy statement?

Our Board of Directors is soliciting your proxy to vote at the annual meeting because you were a stockholder of record at the close of business on June 6, 2006, the record date, and are entitled to vote at the meeting. This proxy statement and the 2006 Annual Report to Stockholders, along with either a proxy card or a voting instruction card, are being mailed to stockholders beginning on or about June 23, 2006. This proxy statement summarizes the information you need to know to vote at the annual meeting. You do not need to attend the annual meeting to vote your shares.

What is the difference between holding shares as a stockholder of record and as a beneficial owner?

If your shares are registered directly in your name with our transfer agent, Florida Atlantic Stock Transfer, Inc., you are considered, with respect to those shares, the “stockholder of record.” The proxy statement, annual report and proxy card have been sent directly to you by us.

If your shares are held in a stock brokerage account by a bank or other nominee, you are considered the “beneficial owner” of shares held in the “street name.” The proxy statement and annual report have been forwarded to you by your broker, bank or other nominee who is considered, with respect to those shares, the stockholder of record. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker, bank or other nominee on how to vote your shares by using the voting instruction card included in the mailing or by following their instructions for voting.

How do I vote?

If your shares are held in the street name, through a broker, bank or other nominee, that institution will send you separate instructions describing the procedure for voting your shares. Stockholders of record can vote as follows:

- By Mail: Stockholders should sign, date and return their proxy cards in the pre-addressed, postage-paid envelope that is provided.
- At the Meeting: If you attend the annual meeting, you may vote in person by ballot, even if you have previously returned a proxy card.

Who is entitled to vote and how many votes do they have?

Holders of our common stock as of the close of business on June 6, 2006, the record date, are entitled to vote at the annual meeting. Each share of our Common Stock is entitled to one vote. As of the record date, 24,009,706 shares of our Common Stock were outstanding and entitled to vote at the annual meeting.

May I change my vote after I return my proxy card?

Yes, you may change your vote at any time before your shares are voted at the annual meeting by:

- Notifying our Corporate Secretary, in writing at PetMed Express, Inc., 1441 S.W. 29th Avenue, Pompano Beach, FL 33069 that you are revoking your proxy;
- Executing and delivering a later dated proxy card; or
- Voting in person at the annual meeting.

However, if you have shares held through a brokerage firm, bank or other custodian, you may revoke your instructions only by informing the custodian in accordance with any procedures it has established.

What is a quorum of stockholders?

Shares representing the majority of the total outstanding votes present or represented by proxy constitute a quorum. If you vote or return a proxy card, your shares will be considered part of the quorum.

What vote is required for approval of the proposals?

At the annual meeting, directors will be elected by a plurality of votes cast. Only votes cast “FOR” or “AGAINST” will affect the outcome of this proposal. Therefore, the five directors who receive the greatest number of votes cast “FOR” the election of directors will be elected to serve as directors.

Ratification of the appointment of our independent registered public accounting firm requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of our common stock present at the annual meeting in person or by proxy, and entitled to vote on the matter.

Adoption of the 2006 Employee Equity Compensation Restricted Stock Plan requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of our common stock present at the annual meeting in person or by proxy, and entitled to vote on the matter, and adoption of the 2006 Outside Director Equity Compensation Restricted Stock Plan requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of our common stock present at the annual meeting in person or by proxy, and entitled to vote on the matter.

How are abstentions and broker non-votes counted?

Abstentions are considered shares present at the annual meeting in person or by proxy, and will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present. Abstentions will have no effect on the election of directors, but will have the effect of a vote “AGAINST” ratification of the appointment of our independent registered public accounting firm, the approval of the Employee Equity Compensation Restricted Stock Plan and the approval of the Outside Director Equity Compensation Restricted Stock Plan.

Broker non-votes refer to PetMed’s shares held in street name by a brokerage firm or nominee (such as Cede & Co.) under circumstances where the beneficial owner has not instructed the broker or nominee as to how the shares should be voted. Broker non-votes are considered present by proxy for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the meeting. If your shares are held in street name, the broker or nominee in whose name your shares are held is permitted to vote your shares on the matters to be voted upon at the annual meeting, even if you have not provided specific direction on how your shares should be voted.

Who will count the votes?

A representative of The Altman Group, a company contracted by us to assist the Company in the tabulation of proxies, and our Corporate Secretary and General Counsel, Alison Berges, will tabulate the votes and act as inspector of election.

What happens if a nominee for director is unable to serve as a director?

If any of the nominees becomes unavailable for election, which we do not expect, votes will be cast for such substitute nominee or nominees as may be designated by our Board of Directors, unless our Board of Directors reduces the number of directors. Under the policies of our Board of Directors, directors are expected to attend regular board meetings, board committee meetings and our annual stockholders meeting.

How do I get an admission card to attend the annual meeting?

If you are a stockholder of record, your admission card is attached to your proxy card. You will need to bring it with you to the meeting. If you own shares in the street name, you will need to ask your broker or bank for an admission card in the form of a legal proxy. You will need to bring the legal proxy with you to the meeting. If you do not receive the legal proxy in time or you want to attend the meeting but not vote in person, bring your most recent brokerage statement with you to the meeting. We can use that to verify your ownership of Common Stock and admit you to the meeting; however you will not be able to vote your shares at the meeting without a legal proxy. Please note that if you own shares in the street name and you request a legal proxy, any previously executed proxy will be revoked, and your vote will not be counted unless you appear at the meeting and vote in person.

You will also need to bring a photo ID to gain admission.

Who is soliciting my proxy and who pays the cost?

PetMed Express, Inc. and the Board of Directors are soliciting your proxy. The cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Company. PetMed Express, Inc. will also reimburse brokerage firms, banks and other custodians for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses for forwarding these proxy materials to you. Our directors, officers and employees may also solicit proxies by mail, telephone and personal contact. They will not receive any additional compensation for these activities.

In addition, to assist in the solicitation of proxies from brokers, bank nominees, and other institutional holders, and from other stockholders, the Company has engaged The Altman Group for a fee not to exceed $6,500 plus out-of-pocket expenses.

When are stockholder proposals due for next year's annual meeting?

Pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act, stockholders may present proper proposals for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement and for consideration at the 2007 annual meeting of stockholders by submitting their proposals to the Company in a timely manner. Proposals that stockholders wish to be included in next year's Proxy Statement for the annual meeting to be held in 2007 must be received at the Company's principal place of business at 1441 S.W. 29th Avenue, Pompano Beach, FL 33069, addressed to the Corporate Secretary's attention, no later than March 15, 2007.

Can different stockholders sharing the same address receive only one Annual Report and Proxy Statement?

Yes. The Securities and Exchange Commission permits companies and intermediaries, such as a brokerage firm or a bank, to satisfy the delivery requirements for proxy statements and annual reports with respect to two or more security holders sharing the same address by delivering only one proxy statement and annual report to that address. This process which is commonly referred to as "householding" can effectively reduce our printing and postage costs. Under householding, each stockholder would continue to receive a separate proxy card or voting instruction card.

Certain of our stockholders whose shares are held in the street name and who have consented to householding will receive only one set of our annual meeting materials per household this year. If your household received a single set of our annual meeting materials this year, you can request to receive additional copies of these materials by calling or writing your broker, bank or other nominee. If you own your shares in the street name, you can request householding by calling or writing your broker, bank or other nominee.

ITEM 1 - ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors unanimously recommends a vote “FOR” the election of the following directors:

Menderes Akdag, Frank J. Formica, Gian M. Fulgoni, Ronald J. Korn, and Robert C. Schweitzer.

Each of the nominated directors has agreed to serve if elected. If elected the directors will serve until the next annual meeting of stockholders or until the director is succeeded by another director who has been elected. However, if for some reason one or more of them is unable to accept nomination, or election, proxies will be voted for the election of a nominee(s) designated by our Board of Directors. Biographical information for each of the nominees is presented below.

ITEM 2 - RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

The Board of Directors unanimously recommends a vote “FOR” the ratification of the appointment of Goldstein Golub Kessler LLP as the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm.

The Audit Committee has appointed and approved Goldstein Golub Kessler LLP to audit our fiscal year 2007 consolidated financial statements. Representatives of the firm will be available at the annual meeting to make a statement, if they choose, and to answer any questions you may have.

ITEM 3 - APPROVAL OF THE EMPLOYEE EQUITY COMPENSATION RESTRICTED STOCK PLAN

The Board of Directors unanimously recommends a vote “FOR” the approval of the Employee Equity Compensation Restricted Stock Plan.

APPROVAL OF 2006 EMPLOYEE EQUITY COMPENSATION RESTRICTED STOCK PLAN

The Board of Directors of the Company has adopted the PetMed Express, Inc. 2006 Employee Equity Compensation Restricted Stock Plan (the “Plan”), subject to the approval of the Company’s stockholders. If the stockholders approve the Plan, it will become effective on July 28, 2006. If stockholders do not approve the Plan, the Plan will have no effect.

The purpose of the Plan is to promote the interests of the Company by securing and retaining employees of outstanding ability and to provide additional motivation to such employees to exert their best efforts on behalf of the Company. The Company expects that it will benefit from the added commitment which such employees will have in the welfare of the Company as a result of their ownership or increased ownership of the Company's Common Stock. All employees will be eligible to receive awards (“Awards”) under the Plan, which consist of grants of Restricted Stock. Awards may be made under the Plan until July 28, 2016.

The following is a summary of the material terms and provisions of the Plan and the tax consequences to the Company and to those employees who receive Awards of Restricted Stock under the Plan. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Plan, a copy of which is attached to this Proxy Statement as Exhibit A. To the extent that there is a conflict between this summary and the Plan, the terms of the Plan will govern.

Description of the Restricted Stock Plan

Administration. The Plan shall be administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, each of whom is a "non-employee director" as defined in Rule 16b-3 of the General Rules and Regulations under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Committee"). The Committee shall have the sole authority to (i) award shares under the Plan; (ii) consistent with the Plan, determine the provisions of the shares to be awarded, the restrictions and other terms and conditions applicable to each award of shares under the Plan; (iii) interpret the Plan, the instruments evidencing the restrictions imposed upon stock awarded under the Plan and the shares awarded under the Plan; (iv) adopt, amend and rescind rules and regulations for the administration of the Plan; and (v) generally administer the Plan and make all determinations in connection therewith which may be necessary or advisable, and all such actions of the Committee shall be binding upon all participants.

Eligibility. All employees, including officers, of the Company who are, from time to time, responsible for the management, growth and protection of the business of the Company shall be eligible for awards of stock under the Plan. No member of the Board of Directors of the Company shall be eligible to participate in the Plan unless such director is also an employee of the Company. The employees who shall receive awards under the Plan shall be selected from time to time by the Committee in its sole discretion, from among those eligible, and the Committee shall determine, in its sole discretion, the number of shares to be awarded to each such employee selected.

Awards. The shares that may be awarded under the Plan (without payment by participants) (“Restricted Stock”) shall be the common stock, par value $.001 per share, of the Company (“Common Stock”), and shall be authorized, but un-issued, shares. The maximum number of shares of Common Stock that may be awarded hereunder (subject to any adjustments as provided below) shall not in the aggregate exceed 1,000,000 shares.

Written Agreements. The terms and conditions of each Award, including those related to the Restriction Period, will be set forth in a written agreement executed by the Company and employee.

Transfer Restrictions. No share awarded under the 2006 Plan shall be sold, assigned, transferred, pledged, hypothecated or otherwise disposed of during the Restriction Period applicable thereto.

Restrictions and Restriction Period. In addition to such other terms, conditions and restrictions as may be imposed by the Committee and contained in the written instrument under which Awards of Common Stock are made pursuant to the Plan, (i) no Common Stock so awarded shall be restricted for a period (the “Restriction Period”) of less than one year or more than ten years unless otherwise specified by the Committee; and (ii) except as provided in the Plan, and described below under “Accelerated Vesting; Forfeiture”, the recipient of the Award shall remain in the employ of the Company during the Restriction Period or otherwise forfeit all right, title and interest in and to the Restricted Stock subject to such restrictions.

Stock Certificates; Escrow. Certificates representing the Restricted Stock shall be registered in the name of the participant, such certificates shall bear an appropriate legend referring to the terms, conditions, and restrictions applicable to such shares, and PetMed shall retain physical possession of the certificate in escrow until all restrictions have been lifted or requirements met.

Accelerated Vesting; Forfeiture. Each outstanding Award shall become immediately vested and unrestricted upon the occurrence of a change in control of the Company, upon the death or permanent disability, of the employee, or if the employee is terminated without cause. Shares of Restricted Stock shall be forfeited in the event the employee voluntarily resigns or is terminated for cause during the Restriction Period. If the Restricted Stock fails to vest as specified in the applicable award agreement, the shares of Restricted Stock will be canceled and forfeited by the employee. All shares of Restricted Stock that are canceled or forfeited will be available for future Awards under the Plan.

Voting and Dividend Rights. Prior to the vesting of any Restricted Stock Awards under this Plan, a participant will have all of the rights of a stockholder with respect to the shares of Common Stock so awarded, including, but not limited to, the right to receive such cash dividends, if any, as may be declared on such shares from time to time and the right to vote (in person or by proxy) such shares at any meeting of PetMed’s stockholders. As a condition to the grant of the Award under the Plan, dividends, if any, as may be declared on such shares of Common Stock shall be deposited into an escrow or similarly segregated account, and disbursement of such dividends to the participant will occur only upon the delivery of the shares of Common Stock to which such dividends relate, and in the event the shares of Common Stock to which such dividends relate are forfeited, the participant’s right to receive disbursement of such dividends will be forfeited and the amount of the dividends shall be returned to the Company.

Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following discussion of the federal tax consequences of the Plan is based on the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code (the “Code”) currently in effect, current regulations, and administrative rulings of the Internal Revenue Service. The discussion is limited to the tax consequences on United States citizens and does not consider the potential impact of state or local tax laws. It is not intended to be a complete discussion of all of the United States income tax consequences of the Plan or of all of the requirements that must be satisfied to qualify for the tax treatment described in this discussion. Changes in the law and the regulations may modify the discussion, and, in some cases, changes may be retroactive. In addition, tax consequences may vary depending upon the personal circumstances of individual holders of stock and the tax requirements applicable to residents of countries other than the United States.

With respect to an Award, unless an employee makes an election under Section 83(b) of the Internal Revenue Code (an “83(b) election”), as described below, the employee will generally recognize ordinary compensation income in an amount equal to the fair market value of the shares subject to the grant of Restricted Stock at the time the Restricted Stock ceases to be subject to forfeiture. Dividends paid to an employee on the shares of Restricted Stock where no 83(b) election is made are treated as compensation income of the employee in the year received. The employee’s holding period for long-term capital gains purposes will not begin to run until the stock becomes unrestricted.

With respect to an Award, an employee may make an 83(b) election only with the prior approval of the Committee. If an employee makes an 83(b) election within the required period of thirty days after receipt of the Restricted Stock, the employee will be immediately taxed, as compensation income, on the fair market value of the Restricted Stock issued to such employee, valued on the date of grant. Any dividends received on stock subject to an 83(b) election will be treated as ordinary dividend income. Where an 83(b) election is made, an employee’s holding period for long-term capital gains purposes begins to run on receipt of the Restricted Stock. A forfeiture of Restricted Stock after an 83(b) election is made, even though the employee has included the stock as income, does not entitle the employee to a tax deductible loss if no amount was paid for the Restricted Stock by the employee.

Subject to the limitations on deductibility contained in Section 162(m) of the Code, the Company will receive a deduction for federal income tax purposes equal to the compensation income recognized by the employee receiving the Award.

Vote Required

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of common stock present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the annual meeting is required to approve the Plan. Unless instructed to the contrary, the shares represented by the proxies will be voted to approve the Plan.

ITEM 4 - APPROVAL OF THE OUTSIDE DIRECTOR EQUITY COMPENSATION RESTRICTED STOCK PLAN

The Board of Directors unanimously recommends a vote “FOR” the approval of the Outside Director Equity Compensation Restricted Stock Plan.

APPROVAL OF 2006 OUTSIDE DIRECTOR EQUITY COMPENSATION RESTRICTED STOCK PLAN

The Board of Directors of the Company has adopted the PetMed Express, Inc. 2006 Outside Director Equity Compensation Restricted Stock Plan (the “Director Plan”), subject to the approval of the Company’s stockholders. If the stockholders approve the Director Plan, it will become effective on July 28, 2006. If stockholders do not approve the Director Plan, the Director Plan will have no effect.

The purpose of the Director Plan is to promote the interests of the Company by attracting, retaining and compensating highly qualified individuals who are not employees or affiliates of PetMed or any of its subsidiaries, to serve as members of the Company’s Board of Directors (the “Board”), and to enable them to increase their ownership of PetMed’s Common Stock, thereby increasing their proprietary interest in PetMed and their identification with the interests of PetMed’s stockholders. Awards may be made under the Director Plan until July 28, 2016.

The following is a summary of the material terms and provisions of the Director Plan and the tax consequences to the Company and to those outside directors who receive Awards of Restricted Stock under the Director Plan. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Director Plan, a copy of which is attached to this Proxy Statement as Exhibit B. To the extent that there is a conflict between this summary and the Director Plan, the terms of the Director Plan will govern.

Description of the Restricted Stock Director Plan

Administration. The Director Plan shall be administered by the Board. The Board shall have the sole authority to (i) award shares of Common Stock ("Restricted Stock") under the Director Plan; (ii) interpret the Director Plan, the instruments evidencing the restrictions imposed upon shares of Common Stock with respect to which Restricted Stock Awards are awarded under the Director Plan; (iii) adopt, amend and rescind rules and regulations for the administration of the Director Plan; and (iv) administer the Director Plan and make all determinations in connection therewith which may be necessary or advisable, and all such actions of the Board shall be binding upon all participants.

- (a) Initial Grants. Each person who was an Outside Director as of July 28, 2006 will automatically be granted, as of the date on which stockholder approval of the Director Plan is obtained, a Restricted Stock Award of 5,000 shares of Common Stock, and the Grant Date with respect to such initial Restricted Stock Awards will be the date on which stockholder approval of the Director Plan is obtained.
- (b) Annual Grants. Thereafter, each person who is an Outside Director following an annual meeting of Stockholders each year will automatically be granted a Restricted Stock Award of 5,000 shares of Common Stock (subject to change with Board approval), and the Grant Date with respect to each such Restricted Stock Awards will be the date on which the award is granted.

Eligibility. Each "Outside Director" of PetMed shall be a participant in the Director Plan. For purposes of the Director Plan, an "Outside Director" is any member of PetMed's Board who, as of the close of business on the date of the annual meeting of PetMed's stockholders, meets the definition of "Non-Employee Director" as set forth in Rule 16b-3(b)(3)(i) adopted under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act").

Awards. The shares that may be awarded under the Director Plan (without payment by participants) ("Restricted Stock") shall be the common stock, par value $.001 per share, of the Company ("Common Stock"), and shall be authorized, but un-issued, shares. The maximum number of shares of Common Stock that may be awarded hereunder (subject to any adjustments as provided below) shall not in the aggregate exceed 200,000 shares.

Written Agreements. The terms and conditions of each Award, including those related to the Restriction Period, will be set forth in a written agreement executed by the Company and the outside director.

Transfer Restrictions. No share awarded under the Director Plan shall be sold, assigned, transferred, pledged, hypothecated or otherwise disposed of during the Restriction Period applicable thereto.

Restrictions and Restriction Period. In addition to such other terms, conditions and restrictions as may be imposed and contained in the written instrument under which Awards of Common Stock are made pursuant to the Director Plan, (i) no Common Stock so awarded shall be restricted for a period (the "Restriction Period") of less than one year or more than ten years unless otherwise specified; and (ii) except as provided in the Director Plan, and described below under "Accelerated Vesting; Forfeiture", the recipient of the Award shall serve as an outside director for the Company during the Restriction Period or otherwise forfeit all right, title and interest in and to the Restricted Stock subject to such restrictions.

Stock Certificates; Escrow. Certificates representing the Restricted Stock shall be registered in the name of the participant, such certificates shall bear an appropriate legend referring to the terms, conditions, and restrictions applicable to such shares, and PetMed shall retain physical possession of the certificate in escrow until all restrictions have been lifted or requirements met.

Accelerated Vesting; Forfeiture. Each outstanding Award shall become immediately vested and unrestricted upon the occurrence of a change in control of the Company, or upon the death or permanent disability of the participant. Shares of Restricted Stock shall be forfeited in the event that the participant ceases service as an outside director for any reason other than his or her death or permanent disability

Voting and Dividend Rights. Prior to the vesting of any Restricted Stock Awards under this Director Plan, a participant will have all of the rights of a stockholder with respect to the shares of Common Stock so awarded, including, but not limited to, the right to receive such cash dividends, if any, as may be declared on such shares from time to time and the right to vote (in person or by proxy) such shares at any meeting of PetMed's stockholders. As a condition to the grant of the Award under the Director Plan, dividends, if any, as may be declared on such shares of Common Stock shall be deposited into an escrow or similarly segregated account, and disbursement of such dividends to the participant will occur only upon the delivery of the shares of Common Stock to which such dividends relate, and in the event the shares of Common Stock to which such dividends relate are forfeited, the participant's right to receive disbursement of such dividends will be forfeited and the amount of the dividends shall be returned to the Company.

Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following discussion of the federal tax consequences of the Director Plan is based on the provisions of the Code currently in effect, current regulations, and administrative rulings of the Internal Revenue Service. The discussion is limited to the tax consequences on United States citizens and does not consider the potential impact of state or local tax laws. It is not intended to be a complete discussion of all of the United States income tax consequences of the Director Plan or of all of the requirements that must be satisfied to qualify for the tax treatment described in this discussion. Changes in the law and the regulations may modify the discussion, and, in some cases, changes may be retroactive. In addition, tax consequences may vary depending upon the personal circumstances of individual holders of stock and the tax requirements applicable to residents of countries other than the United States.

With respect to an Award, unless a participant makes an election under Section 83(b) of the Internal Revenue Code (an "83(b) election"), as described below, the participant will generally recognize ordinary compensation income in an amount equal to the fair market value of the shares subject to the grant of Restricted Stock at the time the Restricted Stock ceases to be subject to forfeiture. Dividends paid to a participant on the shares of Restricted Stock where no 83(b) election is made are treated as compensation income of the participant in the year received. The participant's holding period for long-term capital gains purposes will not begin to run until the stock becomes unrestricted.

With respect to an Award, a participant may make an 83(b) election only with the prior approval of the Board. If a participant makes an 83(b) election within the required period of thirty days after receipt of the Restricted Stock, the participant will be immediately taxed, as compensation income, on the fair market value of the Restricted Stock issued to such participant, valued on the date of grant. Any dividends received on stock subject to an 83(b) election will be treated as ordinary dividend income. Where an 83(b) election is made, a participant's holding period for long-term capital gains purposes begins to run on receipt of the Restricted Stock. A forfeiture of Restricted Stock after an 83(b) election is made, even though the participant has included the stock as income, does not entitle the participant to a tax deductible loss if no amount was paid for the Restricted Stock by the participant.

Subject to the limitations on deductibility contained in Section 162(m) of the Code, the Company will receive a deduction for federal income tax purposes equal to the compensation income recognized by the participant receiving the Award.

Vote Required; Board Recommendation

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of common stock present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the annual meeting is required to approve the Director Plan. Unless instructed to the contrary, the shares represented by the proxies will be voted to approve the Director Plan.

Policy with Regard to the Consideration of Director Candidate Recommendations by our Stockholders

The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee has a policy pursuant to which it considers director candidates recommended by our stockholders. All director candidates recommended by our stockholders are considered for selection to the Board on the same basis as if such candidates were recommended by one or more of our directors or other sources. To recommend a director candidate for consideration by our Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee, a stockholder must submit the recommendation in writing to our Corporate Secretary not later than one hundred twenty (120) calendar days prior to the anniversary date of our proxy statement distributed to our stockholders in connection with our most recent annual meeting of stockholders, and the recommendation must provide the following information: (i) the name of the stockholder making the recommendation, (ii) the name of the candidate, (iii) the candidate's resume or a listing of his or her qualifications to be a director, (iv) the proposed candidate's written consent to being named as a nominee and to serving as one of our directors if elected, and (v) a description of all relationships, arrangements or understandings, if any, between the proposed candidate and the recommending stockholder and between the proposed candidate and us so that the candidate's independence may be assessed. The stockholder or the director candidate also must provide any additional information requested by our Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee to assist the Committee in appropriately evaluating the candidate.

Working closely with the full Board, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee develops criteria for open Board positions, taking into account such factors as it deems appropriate, including, among others, the current composition of the Board, the range of talents, experiences and skills that would best complement those already represented on the Board, the balance of management and independent Directors and the need for financial or other specialized expertise.

Stockholder Communications with the Board

PetMed provides an informal process for stockholders to send communications to our Board of Directors. Stockholders who wish to communicate directly with our Board of Directors, or specified individual directors, may do so in writing to the Board of Directors or individual director in c/o Corporate Secretary and General Counsel, PetMed Express, Inc., 1441 S.W. 29th Avenue, Pompano Beach, FL 33069. Correspondence directed to an individual board member is referred, unopened, to that member. REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The following Report of the Audit Committee does not constitute soliciting material and should not be deemed filed or incorporated by reference into any other filing by us under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, except to the extent we specifically incorporate this Report by reference therein.

The Securities and Exchange Commission rules require us to include in this proxy statement a report from the Audit Committee of our Board of Directors. The following report concerns the Audit Committee's activities regarding oversight of our financial reporting and auditing process.

The Audit Committee is comprised solely of independent directors, as defined in the Marketplace Rules of the Nasdaq National Market and under Securities Exchange Act Rule 10A-3(b)(1), and it operates under a written charter adopted by the Company's Board of Directors. The composition of the Audit Committee, the attributes of its members and the responsibilities of the Audit Committee, as reflected in its charter, are intended to be in accordance with applicable requirements for corporate audit committees. The Audit Committee reviews and assesses the adequacy of its charter on an annual basis.

As described more fully in its charter, the purpose of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board of Directors in the oversight of its financial reporting, internal control and audit functions. Management is responsible for the preparation, presentation and integrity of its consolidated financial statements, accounting and financial reporting principles, and internal controls and procedures designed to ensure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations. Goldstein Golub Kessler LLP, the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, is responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States.

The Audit Committee members are not professional accountants or auditors, and their functions are not intended to duplicate or to certify the activities of management and the independent registered public accounting firm, nor can the Audit Committee certify that the independent registered public accounting firm is "independent" under applicable rules. The Audit Committee serves a board-level oversight role, in which it provides advice, counsel and direction to management and the independent registered public accounting firm on the basis of the information it receives, discussions with management and the independent registered public accounting firm and the experience of the Audit Committee's members in business, financial and accounting matters.

Among other matters, the Audit Committee monitors the activities and performance of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, including the audit scope, external audit fees, registered public accounting firm independence matters and the extent to which the independent registered public accounting firm may be retained to perform non-audit services. The Audit Committee and the Board of Directors have ultimate authority and responsibility to select, evaluate and, when appropriate, replace the independent registered public accounting firm. The Audit Committee also reviews the results of the audit work with regard to the adequacy and appropriateness of financial, accounting and internal controls. Management and independent registered public accounting firm presentations to and discussions with the Audit Committee also cover various topics and events that may have significant financial impact or are the subject of discussions between management and the independent registered public accounting firm. In addition, the Audit Committee generally oversees internal compliance programs.

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the Company's consolidated financial statements with management and the independent registered public accounting firm, management represented to the Audit Committee that its consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and the independent registered public accounting firm represented that its presentations included the matters required to be discussed with the independent registered public accounting firm by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended, "Communication with Audit Committees."

Goldstein Golub Kessler LLP, the independent registered public accounting firm, also provided the Audit Committee with the written disclosures required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, "Independence Discussions with Audit Committees," and the Audit Committee discussed with Goldstein Golub Kessler LLP the firm's independence.

Following the Audit Committee's discussions with management and Goldstein Golub Kessler LLP, the Audit Committee recommended that the Board of Directors include the audited consolidated financial statements in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2006.

The following Report of the Compensation Committee of our Board of Directors and the performance graphs included elsewhere in this proxy statement do not constitute soliciting material and should not be deemed filed or incorporated by reference into any other filings by us under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, except to the extent we specifically incorporate this Report or the performance graphs by reference therein.

The primary purposes of our Compensation Committee of our Board of Directors, a committee which is comprised solely of independent directors, are to oversee the administration of the Company's compensation programs, review the compensation of executive officers and directors, prepare any report on executive compensation required by the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and generally to provide assistance to the Board of Directors on compensation matters.

During FY 2006, we recommended to the Board of Directors that the Company implement a 4% match of employee 401(k) contributions, that any future options granted have an expiration date of 10 years, with said options vesting equally in 1/3 increments (as is currently done), and that a proposal to our stockholders be made at the 2006 Annual Meeting concerning the issuance of restricted stock instead of options.

Components of Executive Compensation

The basic components of executive compensation are:

- Annual Cash Compensation, specifically, base salary; and
- Long-Term Incentive Compensation, specifically, stock options or restricted stock if approved by the stockholders.

Annual Cash Compensation - Base Salary

The purpose of base salary is to create a secure base of cash compensation for executives that is competitive with the market. Executives' salary increases do not follow a preset schedule or formula; however, the following will be considered when determining appropriate salary levels and increases: the individual's current and sustained performance results and the methods utilized to achieve such results; and non-financial performance indicators to include strategic developments for which an executive has responsibility and managerial performance.

We exercise discretion in making salary decisions taking into account, among other things, each individual's performance and the Company's overall performance. With regard to individual performance of executive officers other than the Chief Executive Officer, we rely to a large extent on the Chief Executive Officer's evaluations of each individual executive officer's performance.

Long-Term Incentive Compensation - Stock Options

Long-term incentives comprise the largest portion of the total compensation package for executives. The form of long-term incentives that has been used in the past for executives is stock options, and stock options may be used going forward along with Restricted Stock, if the Employee Equity Compensation Restricted Stock Plan is approved by the stockholders at the 2006 Annual Meeting. Grant levels will be determined for each executive based on individual performance and potential, history of past grants, time in current job and level of, or significant changes in, responsibility. The purpose of stock options is to provide equity compensation whose value is directly related to the creation of share-owner value. Stock options provide executives a vehicle to increase equity ownership and share in the appreciation of the value of Company stock.

Employment Agreement with Menderes Akdag, Chief Executive Officer and President

On March 16, 2001, the Company had entered into an employment agreement with its current Chief Executive Officer, Menderes Akdag. Under the terms of this three-year agreement the Company paid Mr. Akdag an annual salary of $150,000 for the first six months of the agreement, and thereafter his annual salary was to be increased to $200,000. The Company also granted Mr. Akdag options to purchase 750,000 shares of its common stock under the Company's 1998 Stock Option Plan at an exercise price of $.32 per share, which vested at the rate of 187,500 options on each of March 16, 2001, 2002, 2003 and 2004.

The agreement provided the following: the Company can terminate the employment of Mr. Akdag either upon mutual consent or for cause. If the Company should terminate Mr. Akdag for cause, or if Mr. Akdag should terminate the agreement without "good reason" as described in the employment agreement, no severance benefits would be paid. If the Company should terminate Mr. Akdag without cause, the Company would be required to give Mr. Akdag three months' notice and continue to compensate him under the terms of this employment agreement during those three months. At the end of the three-month period, the Company would have to pay Mr. Akdag severance benefits equal to his annual base salary, and any previously granted but unvested options would immediately vest. If the Company should terminate Mr. Akdag for cause, as defined in the employment agreement, no severance benefits would be paid. The agreement can be terminated upon the mutual consent of the parties, or upon 90 days' notice by the Company during which time the Company would continue to compensate him under the terms of his employment agreement.

On March 16, 2004, the Company amended Mr. Akdag's existing employment agreement. The amendments are as follows: the term of the agreement will be for three years, commencing on March 16, 2004; Mr. Akdag's salary will be increased to $250,000 per year throughout the term of the agreement, and Mr. Akdag shall be granted 250,000 incentive stock options under the Company's 1998 Stock Option Plan at an exercise price of $10.64 per share, which vest at the rate of 83,333 options on each of March 16, 2005 and 2006, and 83,334 options on March 16, 2007. All other terms of Mr. Akdag's original employment agreement remain in effect.

Directors' Compensation

Each member of our Board of Directors who is not employed by us receives an annual retainer of $10,000 per year, paid quarterly. Additionally, upon initial election to the Board of Directors, each director not employed by us was granted 30,000 stock options, under our 1998 Stock Option Plan, to purchase our Common Stock, at an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the stock at the time of granting, with the options vesting equally over a three-year period. From time to time at the discretion of the Board, additional options may be issued in the future. We also pay the reasonable travel and accommodation expenses of directors in connection with their participation in meetings of the Board of Directors.

1998 Stock Option Plan

The Company established the 1998 Stock Option Plan (the "Option Plan") effective July 31, 1998, which provides for the issuance of qualified options to officers and key employees, and nonqualified options to directors, consultants and other service providers. The Company has reserved 5,000,000 shares of common stock for issuance under the Option Plan. The exercise prices of options issued under the Option Plan must be equal to or greater than the market price of the Company's common stock as of the date of issuance.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

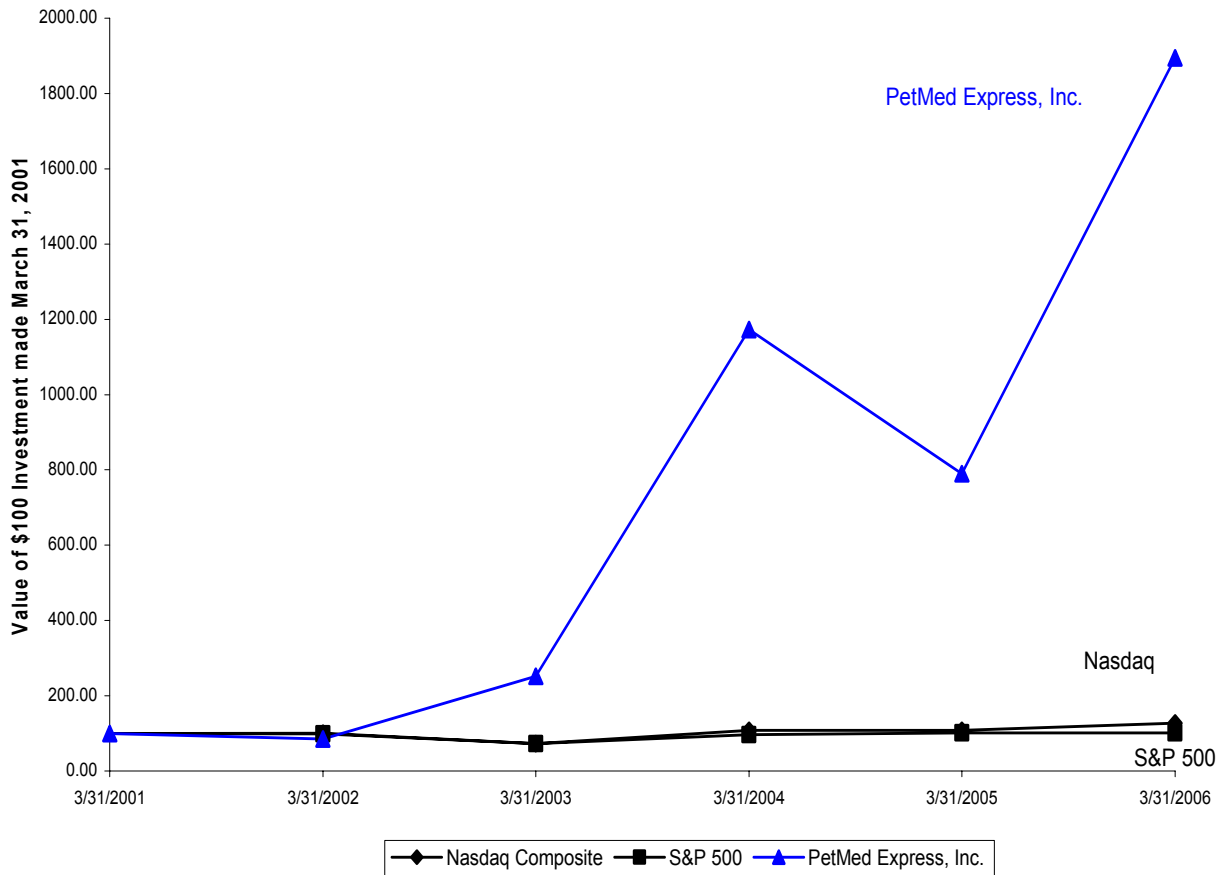

During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2006, Robert C. Schweitzer, Ronald J. Korn and Gian M. Fulgoni served on the Compensation Committee. All members of the Compensation Committee are independent. Accordingly, insiders do not participate in compensation decisions.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Our Board's policy requires that transactions with related parties must be entered into in good faith on fair and reasonable terms that are no less favorable to us than those that would be available in a comparable transaction in arm's-length dealings with an unrelated third party. Our Board, by a vote of the disinterested directors, must approve all related party transactions, recommended by the Audit Committee. Since the beginning of the Company's last fiscal year, the Company has not had, or been a party to, nor is there currently proposed, a transaction with a related party.

PERFORMANCE GRAPH

Set forth below is a graph comparing the cumulative performance of our Common Stock with the Standard & Poor's Composite-500 Stock Index (the "S&P 500") and the Nasdaq Composite (the "NASDAQ") from March 31, 2001 to March 31, 2006. The graph assumes that $100 was invested on March 31, 2001 in each of our Common Stock, the S&P 500 and the NASDAQ and that all dividends were reinvested.

PETMED EXPRESS, INC.
2006 EMPLOYEE EQUITY COMPENSATION
RESTRICTED STOCK PLAN

1. PURPOSE OF PLAN

The purpose of the PetMed Express, Inc. 2006 Restricted Stock Plan (the "2006 Plan"), which is being established by PetMed Express, Inc. on behalf of itself, its subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively, the "Company"), is to secure and retain employees of outstanding ability and to provide additional motivation to such employees to exert their best efforts on behalf of the Company. The Company expects that it will benefit from the added commitment which such employees will have in the welfare of the Company as a result of their ownership or increased ownership of the Company's Common Stock.

2. STOCK SUBJECT TO THE 2006 PLAN

The shares that may be awarded under the 2006 Plan (without payment by participants) shall be the common stock, par value $.001 per share, of the Company ("Common Stock"), and shall be authorized, but un-issued, shares. The maximum number of shares of Common Stock that may be awarded hereunder (subject to any adjustments as provided below) shall not in the aggregate exceed 1,000,000 shares. Shares of Common Stock forfeited as a result of a participant's termination of employment shall again become available for award under the 2006 Plan.

3. ADMINISTRATION

The 2006 Plan shall be administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, each of whom is a "non-employee director" as defined in Rule 16b-3 of the General Rules and Regulations under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Committee"). No member of the Committee shall be eligible to participate in the 2006 Plan.

The Committee shall have the sole authority to (i) award shares of Common Stock ("Restricted Stock") under the 2006 Plan; (ii) consistent with the 2006 Plan, determine the provisions of the shares to be awarded, the restrictions and other terms and conditions applicable to each award of shares under the 2006 Plan; (iii) interpret the 2006 Plan, the instruments evidencing the restrictions imposed upon stock awarded under the 2006 Plan and the shares awarded under the 2006 Plan; (iv) adopt, amend and rescind rules and regulations for the administration of the 2006 Plan; and (v) generally administer the 2006 Plan and make all determinations in connection therewith which may be necessary or advisable, and all such actions of the Committee shall be binding upon all participants. Committee decisions and selections shall be made by a majority of its members present at the meeting at which a quorum is present, and shall be final. Any decision or selection reduced to writing and signed by all of the members of the Committee shall be as fully effective as if it had been made at a meeting duly held.

4. ELIGIBILITY

All employees, including officers, of the Company who are, from time to time, responsible for the management, growth and protection of the business of the Company shall be eligible for awards of stock under the 2006 Plan. No member of the Board of Directors of the Company shall be eligible to participate in the 2006 Plan unless such director is also an employee of the Company. The employees who shall receive awards under the 2006 Plan shall be selected from time to time by the Committee in its sole discretion, from among those eligible, and the Committee shall determine, in its sole discretion, the number of shares to be awarded to each such employee selected. The Committee may, within the terms of the 2006 Plan, be selective and non-uniform with respect to its determination of the amount of awards and the eligible employees to whom such awards are made.

5. RIGHTS WITH RESPECT TO SHARES

A participant to whom an award of Restricted Stock has been made under the 2006 Plan will have all of the rights of a stockholder with respect to the shares of Common Stock so awarded, including, but not limited to, the right to receive, subject to the following sentence, such cash dividends, if any, as may be declared on such shares from time to time and the right to vote (in person or by proxy) such shares at any meeting of the Company's stockholders. As a condition to the grant of the award under the 2006 Plan, and without limiting the provisions of Section 7(b) hereof, dividends, if any, as may be declared on such shares of Common Stock shall be deposited into an escrow or similarly segregated account, and disbursement of such dividends to the participant will occur only upon the delivery of the shares of Common Stock to which such dividends relate, and in the event the shares of Common Stock to which such dividends relate are forfeited, the participant's right to receive disbursement of such dividends will be forfeited and the amount of the dividends shall be returned to the Company.

6. INVESTMENT REPRESENTATION

If the shares of Common Stock that have been awarded to an employee pursuant to the terms of the 2006 Plan are not registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to an exemption from registration, such employee, if the Committee shall deem it advisable, may be required to represent and agree in writing (i) that any shares of Common Stock acquired by such employee pursuant to the 2006 Plan will not be sold except pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or pursuant to an exemption from registration under such Act, and (ii) that such employee has acquired such shares of Common Stock for the participant's own account and not with a view to the distribution thereof.

7. RESTRICTIONS

(a) Terms, Conditions and Restrictions. In addition to such other terms, conditions and restrictions as may be imposed by the Committee and contained in the instrument under which awards of Common Stock are made pursuant to the 2006 Plan, (i) no Common Stock so awarded shall be restricted for a period (the "Restriction Period") of less than one year or more than ten years unless otherwise specified by the Committee; and (ii) except as provided in paragraph (e) below, the recipient of the award shall remain in the employ of the Company during the Restriction Period or otherwise forfeit all right, title and interest in and to the shares subject to such restrictions.

(c) Agreements; Stock Legend. As a condition to the grant of an award under the 2006 Plan, each eligible employee selected to participate shall execute and deliver to the Company an agreement in form and substance satisfactory to the Committee reflecting the conditions and restrictions imposed upon the Common Stock awarded. Certificates for shares of Common Stock delivered pursuant to such awards may, if the Committee so determines, bear a legend referring to the restrictions and the instruments to which such awards are subject.

(d) Additional Conditions. In the agreements evidencing awards or otherwise, the Committee may impose such other and additional terms, conditions and restrictions upon the award as it, in its discretion, deems appropriate including, without limitation, that the Company shall have the right to deduct from payments of any kind due to the participant, any federal, state or local taxes of any kind required by law to be withheld with respect to the shares awarded.

(e) Lapse of Restrictions. The restrictions imposed under paragraph (a) above shall terminate with respect to the shares of Common Stock to which they apply on the earliest to occur of the following, unless otherwise specified by the Committee:

- (i) the expiration of the Restriction Period;
- (ii) the participant's total and permanent disability; or
- (iii) the participant's death.

Certificates for shares of Common Stock with respect to which restrictions have lapsed as provided above shall, upon lapse thereof, be released from escrow and delivered to the participant or, in the event of participant's death, to participant's personal representative. Any stock legend referring to the restrictions imposed hereunder shall thereupon be removed.

(f) Change of Control of the Company. Upon the occurrence of a Change of Control, unless otherwise specifically prohibited under applicable laws or by the rules and regulations of any governing governmental agencies or national securities exchanges, or unless the Committee shall determine otherwise, any Restriction Period and restrictions imposed on Restricted Stock shall terminate.

For purposes of the 2006 Plan, a "Change in Control" of the Company shall be deemed to have occurred if:

(a) any person, as such term is used in Sections 13(d)(3) and 14(d)(2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, becomes a beneficial owner (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 under such Act) of 20% or more of the Company's outstanding Common Stock;

(b) there occurs within any period of two consecutive years any change in the directors of the Company such that the members of the Company's Board of Directors prior to such change do not constitute a majority of the directors after giving effect to all changes during such two-year period unless the election, or the nomination for election by the Company's stockholders, of each new director was approved by a vote of at least two-thirds of the directors then still in office who were directors at the beginning of the period; or

(c) the Company is merged, consolidated or reorganized into or with, or sells all or substantially all of its assets to, another company or other entity, and immediately after such transaction less than 80% of the voting power of the then-outstanding securities of such company or other entity immediately after such transaction is held in the aggregate by holders of the Company's Common Stock immediately before such transaction.

In addition, if the Company enters into an agreement or series of agreements or the Board of Directors of the Company adopts a resolution which results in the occurrence of any of the foregoing events, and the employment of a participant is terminated after and as the sole result of the entering into of such agreement or series of agreements or the adoption of such resolution then, upon the occurrence of any of the events described above, a Change in Control shall be deemed to have retroactively occurred on the date of entering into of the earliest of such agreements or the adoption of such resolution and the participants shall be entitled to the delivery as of such date of any forfeited Restricted Stock.

(a) No Right to Receive Award. Nothing in the 2006 Plan shall be construed to give any employee of the Company any right to receive an award under the 2006 Plan.

(b) Additional Shares Received With Respect to Restricted Stock. Any shares of Common Stock or other securities of the Company received by an employee as a stock dividend on, or as a result of stock splits, combinations, exchanges of shares, reorganizations, mergers, consolidations or otherwise with respect to shares of Common Stock received pursuant to an award hereunder shall have the same status, be subject to the same restrictions and bear the same legend, if any, as the shares received pursuant to the original award.

(c) Certificates for Shares. Shares of Restricted Stock granted under the 2006 Plan shall be evidenced by certificates. Certificates representing the Restricted Stock shall be registered in the name of the participant, such certificates shall bear an appropriate legend referring to the terms, conditions, and restrictions applicable to such shares and the Company shall retain physical possession of the certificate in escrow until all restrictions have been lifted or requirements met.

(d) No Effect on Employment Rights. Nothing in the 2006 Plan or in the instruments evidencing the grant of an award hereunder shall in any manner be construed to limit in any way the right of the Company or a subsidiary to terminate an employee's employment at any time, or give any right to an employee to remain employed by the Company.

(e) Governing Law. All provisions of the 2006 Plan shall be construed in accordance with the laws of Florida except to the extent preempted by federal law.

(f) No Restriction on Corporate Action. Nothing contained in the 2006 Plan shall be construed to prevent the Company or any subsidiary from taking any corporate action that is deemed by the Company or such subsidiary to be appropriate or in the best interest, whether or not such action would have an adverse effect on the 2006 Plan or any shares of Common Stock granted under the 2006 Plan. No employee, non-employee director, beneficiary or other person shall have any claim against the Company or any subsidiary as a result of any such action.

9. EFFECTIVE DATE OF 2006 PLAN

The 2006 Plan shall become effective when approved by the Shareholders of the Company.

10. AMENDMENTS

The Committee may amend or terminate the 2006 Plan without shareholder approval unless shareholder approval is required by any federal or state law or regulation or the rules of The Nasdaq Stock Market. The Committee shall not have the right to amend the 2006 Plan to:

- (i) except as provided in paragraph 8(b) of the 2006 Plan, increase the maximum number of shares reserved for purposes of the 2006 Plan;
- (ii) extend the duration of the 2006 Plan; or
- (iii) materially increase the benefits accruing to participants under the 2006 Plan.

Any amendment or alteration which impairs the rights of any participant during the Restriction Period is not effective unless written consent from the participant is obtained.

11. DURATION AND TERMINATION

This 2006 Plan shall terminate, and no further stock shall be awarded hereunder, after July 28, 2016. In addition, the Committee may terminate the 2006 Plan at any time prior thereto. The termination of this 2006 Plan shall not, however, affect any restriction previously imposed or restricted stock awarded pursuant to this 2006 Plan.

12. COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 16(B)

The 2006 Plan is intended to comply with all applicable conditions of Rule 16b-3 of the General Rules and Regulations under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. All transactions involving the Company's executive officers are subject to such conditions, regardless of whether the conditions are expressly set forth in the 2006 Plan. Any provision of the 2006 Plan that is contrary to a condition of Rule 16b-3 shall not apply to executive officers of the Company.

FORM OF RESTRICTED STOCK AGREEMENT PURSUANT TO PETMED EXPRESS, INC. 2006 RESTRICTED STOCK PLAN

THIS RESTRICTED STOCK AGREEMENT is made this ____ day of _____, ____ by and between _____ (the "Participant") and PetMed Express, Inc., a Florida corporation, on behalf of itself, its subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively, the "Company") pursuant to the Company's 2006 Restricted Stock Plan (the "2006 Plan").

WHEREAS, the Compensation Committee (the "Committee") of the Board of Directors of the Company at its meeting on _____ authorized and directed the Company to make an award of stock to the Participant under the 2006 Plan for the purposes expressed in the 2006 Plan;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the mutual undertakings herein contained, the parties agree as follows:

1. Grant of Stock. In accordance with the terms of the 2006 Plan and subject to the further terms, conditions and restrictions contained in this Agreement, the Company hereby grants to the Participant _____ shares (the "Shares") of the Company's common stock, par value $.001 per share (the "Common Stock"). As long as the Shares are subject to the Restrictions set forth in Section 4 of this Agreement, such shares shall be deemed to be, and are referred to in this Agreement as, the "Restricted Shares."

2. Certificates for Shares. Certificates evidencing Restricted Stock shall be deposited with the Company to be held in escrow until such Shares are released to the Participant or forfeited in accordance with this Agreement. The Participant shall, simultaneously with the delivery of this Agreement, deliver to the Company a stock power, in blank, executed by the Participant. If any Restricted Stock is forfeited, the Company shall direct the transfer agent of the Common Stock to make the appropriate entries in its records showing the cancellation of the certificate or certificates for such Restricted Stock and to return the Shares represented thereby to the Company's treasury.

3. Adjustments in Restricted Stock. In the event of any change in the outstanding Common Stock by reason of a stock dividend or distribution, recapitalization, merger, consolidation, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or the like, the Committee shall make equitable adjustments in the Restricted Stock corresponding to adjustments made by the Committee in the number and class of shares of Common Stock which may be issued under the 2006 Plan. Any new, additional or different securities to which the Participant shall be entitled in respect of Restricted Stock by reason of such adjustment shall be deemed to be Restricted Stock and shall be subject to the same terms, conditions, and restrictions as the Restricted Stock so adjusted.

4. Restrictions. During applicable periods of restriction determined in accordance with Section 6 of this Agreement, Restricted Stock and all rights with respect to such Stock, may not be sold, assigned, transferred, exchanged, pledged, hypothecated or otherwise encumbered or disposed of and shall be subject to the risk of forfeiture contained in Section 5 of this Agreement (such limitations on transferability and risk of forfeiture being herein referred to as "Restrictions"), but the Participant shall have all other rights of a stockholder, including, but not limited to, the right to vote and receive dividends on Restricted Stock, subject to any dividend to be held in escrow pursuant to the terms of the 2006 Plan.

5. Forfeiture of Restricted Stock. In the event that the Participant terminates employment with the Company for any reason other than his or her death or permanent disability, such event shall constitute an "Event of Forfeiture" and all Shares which at that time are Restricted Stock shall thereupon be forfeited by the Participant to the Company without payment of any consideration by the Company, and neither the Participant nor any successor, heir, assign or personal representative of the Participant shall have any right, title or interest in or to such Restricted Stock or the certificates evidencing them.

6. Lapse of Restrictions. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b) below, the Restrictions on the Restricted Stock granted under this Agreement shall lapse ratably on each of the anniversaries of the date of this Agreement in accordance with the following schedule:

[INSERT TABLE]

(b) In the event that a Participant's employment with the Company terminates as a result of his or her death or permanent disability, the Restrictions shall lapse on the Restricted Stock (if not already lapsed pursuant to subsection (a) above) on the date of such event.

Upon lapse of the Restrictions in accordance with this Section, the Company shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, deliver to the Participant, or to the Participant's personal representative, an unrestricted certificate for the Shares with respect to which such Restrictions have lapsed.

(c) In the event of a change in control, as defined in the 2006 Plan, any Restriction Period and restrictions imposed on Restricted Stock shall lapse.

7. Withholding Requirements. The Company shall have the right to withhold from sums due to the Participant, or to require the Participant to remit to the Company in an amount sufficient to satisfy any Federal, state or local withholding tax requirements prior to making such payments or delivering any certificate evidencing such Shares.

8. Effect of Employment. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall confer upon the Participant the right to continue in the employment of the Company or affect any right which the Company may have to terminate the employment of the Participant.

9. Amendment. This Agreement may not be amended except with the consent of the Committee and by a written instrument duly executed by the Participant and the Company.

10. Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns. Participant acknowledges receipt of a copy of the 2006 Plan, which is annexed hereto, represents that he or she is familiar with the terms and provisions thereof and accepts the award of Shares hereunder subject to all of the terms and conditions thereof and of this Agreement. If the shares of Common Stock underlying the Restricted Stock Award granted to a participant pursuant to the terms of the Plan are not registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Act"), pursuant to an exemption from registration, such participant shall be required to represent and agree in writing (i) that any shares of Common Stock acquired pursuant to the Plan will not be sold except pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Act, or pursuant to an exemption from registration under the Act, and (ii) that such participant has acquired such shares of Common Stock for the participant's own account and not with a view to the distribution thereof.

7. RESTRICTIONS

(a) Terms, Conditions and Restrictions. In addition to such other terms, conditions and restrictions as may be imposed by the Board and contained in the instrument under which awards of Common Stock are made pursuant to the 2006 Plan, (i) no Common Stock so awarded shall be restricted for a period (the "Restriction Period") of less than one year or more than ten years unless otherwise specified by the Committee; and (ii) except as provided in paragraph (e) below, the recipient of the award shall serve as an outside director during the Restriction Period or otherwise forfeit all right, title and interest in and to the shares subject to such restrictions.

(c) Agreements; Stock Legend. As a condition to the grant of an award under the 2006 Plan, all outside directors shall execute and deliver to the Company an agreement in form and substance satisfactory to the Board reflecting the conditions and restrictions imposed upon the Common Stock awarded. Certificates for shares of Common Stock delivered pursuant to such awards may, if the Board so determines, bear a legend referring to the restrictions and the instruments to which such awards are subject.

(d) Additional Conditions. In the agreements evidencing awards or otherwise, the Board may impose such other and additional terms, conditions and restrictions upon the award as it, in its discretion, deems appropriate including, without limitation, that the Company shall have the right to deduct from payments of any kind due to the participant any federal, state or local taxes of any kind required by law to be withheld with respect to the shares awarded.

(e) Lapse of Restrictions. The restrictions imposed under paragraph (a) above shall terminate with respect to the shares of Common Stock to which they apply on the earliest to occur of the following, unless otherwise specified by the Board:

- (i) the expiration of the Restriction Period;
- (ii) the participant's total and permanent disability; or
- (iii) the participant's death.

Upon the occurrence of a Change of Control, unless otherwise specifically prohibited under applicable laws or by the rules and regulations of any governing governmental agencies or national securities exchanges, or unless the Committee shall determine otherwise, any Restriction Period and restrictions imposed on Restricted Stock shall terminate.

For purposes of the 2006 Plan, a "Change in Control" of the Company shall be deemed to have occurred if:

(a) any person, as such term is used in Sections 13(d)(3) and 14(d)(2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, becomes a beneficial owner (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 under such Act) of 20% or more of the Company's outstanding Common Stock;

(b) there occurs within any period of two consecutive years any change in the directors of the Company such that the members of the Company's Board of Directors prior to such change do not constitute a majority of the directors after giving effect to all changes during such two-year period unless the election, or the nomination for election by the Company's stockholders, of each new director was approved by a vote of at least two-thirds of the directors then still in office who were directors at the beginning of the period; or

(c) the Company is merged, consolidated or reorganized into or with, or sells all or substantially all of its assets to, another company or other entity, and immediately after such transaction less than 80% of the voting power of the then-outstanding securities of such company or other entity immediately after such transaction is held in the aggregate by holders of the Company's Common Stock immediately before such transaction.

In addition, if the Company enters into an agreement or series of agreements or the Board of Directors of the Company adopts a resolution which results in the occurrence of any of the foregoing events, and the services of a participant is terminated after and as the sole result of the entering into of such agreement or series of agreements or the adoption of such resolution then, upon the occurrence of any of the events described above, a Change in Control shall be deemed to have retroactively occurred on the date of entering into of the earliest of such agreements or the adoption of such resolution and the participant shall be entitled to the delivery as of such date of any forfeited Restricted Stock.

8. MISCELLANEOUS

(a) No Right to Receive Award. Nothing in the 2006 Plan shall be construed to give any outside director any right to receive an award under the 2006 Plan.

(b) Additional Shares Received With Respect to Restricted Stock. Any shares of Common Stock or other securities of the Company received by an outside director as a stock dividend on, or as a result of stock splits, combinations, exchanges of shares, reorganizations, mergers, consolidations or otherwise with respect to shares of Common Stock received pursuant to an award hereunder shall have the same status, be subject to the same restrictions and bear the same legend, if any, as the shares received pursuant to the original award.

(c) Certificates for Shares. Shares of Restricted Stock granted under the 2006 Plan shall be evidenced by certificates. Certificates representing the Restricted Stock shall be registered in the name of the participant, such certificates shall bear an appropriate legend referring to the terms, conditions, and restrictions applicable to such shares and the Company shall retain physical possession of the certificate in escrow until all restrictions have been lifted or requirements met.

(d) Governing Law. All provisions of the 2006 Plan shall be construed in accordance with the laws of Florida except to the extent preempted by federal law.

(e) No Restriction on Corporate Action. Nothing contained in the 2006 Plan shall be construed to prevent the Company or any subsidiary from taking any corporate action that is deemed by the Company or such subsidiary to be appropriate or in the best interest, whether or not such action would have an adverse effect on the 2006 Plan or any shares of Common Stock granted under the 2006 Plan. No employee, outside director, beneficiary or other person shall have any claim against the Company or any subsidiary as a result of any such action.

9. EFFECTIVE DATE OF 2006 PLAN

The 2006 Plan shall become effective when approved by the Shareholders of the Company.

10. AMENDMENTS

The 2006 Plan is intended to comply with all applicable conditions of Rule 16b-3 of the General Rules and Regulations under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. All transactions involving the Company's executive officers are subject to such conditions, regardless of whether the conditions are expressly set forth in the 2006 Plan. Any provision of the 2006 Plan that is contrary to a condition of Rule 16b-3 shall not apply to executive officers of the Company.
